REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT

As superintendent of Florence County School District Four, I am committed to ensuring that students, parents, staff members, and the community at-large are aware of the strategies that must be consistently implemented for sustained student achievement. We all have a part to play on the journey to success as we embrace local, state, and federal accountability mandates.

There are great things happening throughout the district. We have talented students who excel in academics, the arts, and athletics. Our goal is to develop student characters and minds so that these students may grow into contributing citizens with compassion for mankind. Our staff members are top-notch professionals.

There is excitement in the air!

Bertha W. McCants, Ed.D.
Superintendent
